

TEAM ELEMENT3, June 2012

I may be back in my office cubicle, but my heart and mind are still in Guatemala. Such an incredible blessing and honor to be a part of what God is doing there through amazing people! If you want to do something that matters, something that truly means something, help someone in need, the poor, the hungry, the abandoned, the hurting. Man, that's real life stuff. Evan Matthews

I helped dig trenches for Olga and Maria Angelica's house. I laughed harder than I have in a long time. I carried long, heavy pieces of wood until my shoulders were bruised. I was a sheep in our Bible school lesson, and apparently I "baah" incorrectly. I danced with some awesome hippie ladies at the Posada de Santiago across the lake. I made new connections and rekindled old ones. I cried as God revealed Himself to all of us in new and exciting ways.

I worked hard. I played hard. And I left another piece of my heart in Panajachel as I repeatedly fall in love with the town each time I'm there. Lindsey Newberry

It was such a blessing to meet you all and be a part of the work of Porch de Salomon building Olga and Maria Angelica's house. God did many things that week; I'm so thankful to have been a part of it. I absolutely cannot wait to go back to Panajachel and work with you guys again! Abbie Crossley
